PRESSE RELEASE

TRIANGLE FOR THE FIRST TIME AT PANORAMA BERLIN

ROTTENDORF, 4 December 2015

The TRIANGLE fashion brand shows its collection for the first time at the Panorama fashion fair during the Berlin Fashion Week from 19 to 21 January 2015.

TRIANGLE presents a stand composed of apartment-style brand islands with an inviting, homely atmosphere. The brand not only introduces its Autumn/Winter 2016 collection, but also invites to a very special trend preview on Tuesday, 19 January. As the highlight, German singer Namika will perform her hit „Lieblingsmensch“.

BRAND INFORMATION

TRIANGLE makes fashion in which women feel comfortable. And only those who feel at ease can actually exude this level of self-confidence. The brand offers casual chic with easy-going, feminine coolness ensuring that women always feel fashionable and well-dressed – thanks to comfortable fits which go well with individual lifestyles, figures and tastes. Yet the look is effortless and easy, thereby bearing a unique signature. Signature pieces in the collection can be styled to versatile signature looks for any occasion and which underline the personality of the individual wearer. The collections are complemented by special theme capsules and matching accessories such as bags, fashion jewellery, scarves and belts.
