

PRESS RELEASE

MANAGEMENT CHANGE AT THE S.OLIVER GROUP: SUSANNE HECKELSBERGER IS NEW CFO

ROTTENDORF, 06 March 2015

Susanne Heckelsberger will assume the position of CFO at the s.Oliver Group as of 30 March 2015. Heckelsberger succeeds Hanspeter Mürle, who is leaving the company for personal reasons.

Susanne Heckelsberger has a degree in business and more than 20 years of professional experience in various management positions with international and listed companies and corporate groups, and has also worked as an auditor and tax consultant. Among others, she has worked for the auditing firm KPMG, was manager of a firm of auditors, CFO for a globally active group of companies in an M-DAX group and was COO of a subsidiary of Allianz. After building her business consultancy, Susanne Heckelsberger's positions included Head of Risk Management and Internal Audit at Ferrostaal AG and Head of Finance at Linde Engineering. She already has experience of s.Oliver after providing advisory services in the financial sector. »In Susanne Heckelsberger we are very pleased to gain the services of a person who has extensive experience in the financial functions of major international companies«, said Reiner Pichler, CEO of the s.Oliver Group. At the same time, the advisory board and the management of the s.Oliver Group would like to thank Mr. Mürle for his exceptional service and commitment to the company.

COMPANY INFORMATION

The s.Oliver Group, which was founded by Bernd Freier in 1969, grew into one of Europe's leading fashion companies within just a few decades.
